To WILLIAM TAYLEUR, Esq; Late High-Sheriff
for the County of SALOP.

S I R,

Never saw a Dedication without an Acknowledgment of Favours; and should I tell the World what I have receiv'd from Your Generous Hands, I should go beyond the Limits of an Epistle, so shall reserve it for an intire Essay upon Gratitude, and make You the Patron of that. But, forgive Me S I R, for the Assurance of Printing Your Name, without Your Licence, its nothing but what's Common among such Authors as My Self, who have always taken the Freedom without Reflection; and since I can plead Custom, I can plead Pardon, which I need not do, because Forgiveness has been a Virtue perspicuous in Your Generation; and You have as much Title to that, as You have to Your paternal Estate.

That Candour and Civility You shew'd, at taking the POIL, drew from the adverse Party, an Acknowledgment that You acted with more Justice and Impartiality, than they Expected, (and I'm sure, more than they Deserv'd.) Thus to have Encomium from those who seldom Praise any body, shews You Wonderful, and to be Admir'd beyond all as can be said, by Your Obedient Servant,

J. R.

Note. THE POLL is exactly Printed, according to the Original Manuscript, and the Printer has follow'd the Spelling & Errors that are in the Written Poll to a Title; because this should be c'd a true Copy, and if the Clarkes committed Mistakes, I hope they will not Censure the Printer. Only in the first Sheet there is about 6 Persons, whose Names are Price, put down Pine, by Mistake of the Compositor, not us'd to the Hand.

As to the Index, its as Methodical as time would permit to make it; and the chief Fault is, the want of Capital Letters to begin the Names, which no Printing-House can Furnish of one Sort of Letters.

Note, The Letters in the first Column begins the Surname of the Candidates, which tells who each Freeholder Voted for.

Philips's Booth begins page 37, & Ends p. 55.
Flemings's-Booth begins page 56, & Ends p. 73.
Green's Booth begins page 74, & Ends p. 88.

N signifies Newport

A signifies Astley

K signifies Kynaston
